

The Washington Post

Weekend's Best

—BY JEFFREY YORKE—

THE JOY BOYS

"The Gipper" tells jokes, "James Watt" sings while master of ceremonies "Wayne Newton" leads the madness. Is this a new cabinet operation? No, it's the local humor group, "Gross National Product" conducting their own twisted pre-Independence Day celebration Sunday at 2 between the Watergate complex and the Potomac. The comedy will be followed by a jazz band. The performances are free but bring your own Beach Boys music, blanket and picnic.

